

DISASTER RESPONSE (Safety)

This class is intended to help provide safety and health orientation training to Building Trades construction workers responding to a catastrophic event. The goal of the class is to increase hazard awareness on a disaster site, and how to work within an incident command structure.

Length of course: 8 hours. (10 Credits)