

Lead-Based Paint Abatement Worker (Safety)

Purpose: Course is an initial training course that qualifies the participant to apply for an Illinois state lead workers license.

The training covers the following topics, introduction to the dangers of lead, personal and environmental protective equipment, tools and equipment, job site safety, role of the inspector, project planning, clean-up and industrial abatement.

Length of course: 3 days. (30 Credits)

Card Expiration: this card does not have an expiration date but retraining is recommended a minimum of every 4 years.