

INDUSTRIAL COATINGS (Skill)

Industrial Coatings course covers the latest technologies in surface preparation, paint application, and different coatings offered in the market today. The course also covers basic inspection techniques and tools that cover the inspection portion of the Industrial market. Upon completion, the student shall receive a certificate of completion.